

Title: "Gazing Cube"

Artist: Terry Ellen Carter

Gazing Cube reflects on beauty and color in cast-off materials.

Brief Artist Biography: After years of working in fabric and textiles, Carter has ventured into pieces assembled from found objects - with a focus on colorful, shiny combinations. Moving from pliable textiles to less-forgiving materials has been an interesting challenge.

Contact: tec@terryellencarter.com

Art Statement: Created out of colorful glass blocks, surrounded by a metal pedestal, topped with a mirrored cube, this compact piece makes a big impact.

