

Title: Circles of Color

Artist: Terry Warthen

One Sentence about the piece: I'm not much of a gardener so I was looking for a way to bring some color to my yard without using plants.

Brief Artist Biography: Terry Warthen primarily works with stone and copper. She has dabbled in various mediums through classes at the Corcoran School of Art, Christopher Newport University and the YMCA. She is always looking for creative outlets.

Contact: twarthen@pemt.net

Website: NA

Art Statement: This piece was made to add some color to life and generate a smile.

