

John Hildreth

John Hildreth is a finger-style guitarist and multi-instrumentalist based in Blacksburg, VA. His repertoire spans modern acoustic, world, classical, jazz, rock and folk. His guitar stylings are evocative of renown artists such as Andrew York and Michael Hedges, and he performs on a combination of steel-string and classical acoustic guitars. In addition to performing as a soloist, John also appears in several area groups including The Breakfast Club and Two Penny Opera. He attended Western Kentucky University for undergraduate studies (guitar and composition), and holds a Master of Arts in Music degree from Radford University. He currently resides in Gilles County, VA.
