

Growth,
Rachel Breeden

Medium: Acrylic paint, hot glue, dried flowers

This painting was something that I made in order to try and combine some aspects of nature and humanity. I tried to incorporate some of my favorite things that come to mind when I think about springtime and Earth.

Bio: I am a sophomore at Virginia Tech, majoring in International Relations and Writing. I'm not sure what I want to do yet, I just know I'd like to leave the world a better place.
